TOKYO GAME SHOW 2015 (TGS 2015), organized by the Computer Entertainment Supplier's Association (CESA) in cooperation with Nikkei Business Publications, Inc. (Nikkei BP), has released updates regarding exhibitors as of September 1 as follows:

~ 473 exhibitors / 2004 booths, reaching the record high numbers ~

As of September 1, 473 exhibitors (421 in the last year) and 2004 booths (1715 in the last year) are expected, both of which have reached the record high numbers. The number of exhibitors from overseas, also the highest in history, is 243, which is more than half of the overall exhibitors.

Booth overviews and preliminary total of game titles are announced. As of September 1, 793 titles are expected. Game titles in a wide range of genres, from the latest games supporting the hot VR (virtual reality) to fun and easy games for everyone, for a variety of platforms such as game console, smartphone and PC are expected to be exhibited.

The final number of game titles, an overview of booths and other event information is scheduled to be released in the morning of the opening day of the TOKYO GAME SHOW 2015 (Thursday, September 17).
