Hajime Syacho Named as Official Supporter
Appearing in Opening and Closing Events on Sep. 24 and 27!

Computer Entertainment Supplier's Association

Computer Entertainment Supplier's Association (CESA, Chairman: Hideki Hayakawa) announced the outlines of Organizer's Projects planned for TOKYO GAME SHOW 2020 Online (TGS2020 ONLINE: <https://tgs.cesa.or.jp/>) which will be held from September 23 (Wed.) to 27 (Sun.), 2020 and named a Japanese YouTube creator Hajime Syacho as the Official Supporter of TGS2020 ONLINE.

The live streaming, which is the key feature of TGS2020 ONLINE, includes 36 Official Exhibitor Programs, 11 Organizer's Projects, and four e-Sports X events, which are available for viewing on various video streaming platforms from September 24 to 27. The schedule of opening event and other Organizer's Projects is now unveiled, including the keynote speech which will invite leading figures from game publishers to discuss the possibilities of games and what they bring us in the future. Moreover, the Projects will provide the latest trends in the growing e-sports field and programs to encourage children and young generations who dream about becoming a game creator.

The Official Exhibitor Programs and Organizer's Projects can be viewed on the following video streaming platforms: YouTube, Twitter, Twitch, niconico, TikTok Live, Douyu (China), Bilibili (China), Douyin (China), and the Special Amazon Venue (Amazon.co.jp). Some of the programs will be delivered in English and Chinese (as well as Japanese) for overseas viewers. This year's TOKYO GAME SHOW continues to be a platform for many exhibitors to reveal new titles and latest updates, while providing various programs and perspectives for visitors to enjoy computer entertainment. Please look forward to TGS2020 ONLINE.
