TOKYO GAME SHOW 2021 ONLINE

For the first time in its history, TGS will hold TOKYO GAME MUSIC FES,
a gaming music concert with a full orchestra.
Don't miss performances featuring extravagant titles offered exclusively by TGS.

Computer Entertainment Supplier's Association (CESA; Chairman: Hideki Hayakawa) will hold the TOKYO GAME MUSIC FES (TGMF), a gaming music concert performed by a full orchestra, at the TOKYO GAME SHOW 2021 ONLINE (TGS2021 ONLINE), as a new attempt to commemorate the 25th anniversary of the TGS.

■For the first time in TGS history! The "TOKYO GAME MUSIC FES", a gaming music online concert with an orchestra will be held to commemorate TGS's 25th Anniversary.

For the first time in history, a gaming music concert will be held at the TGS. Users will be able to enjoy an omnibus of great songs from nostalgic games to the latest games, made possible only by the TGS. There will be two main stages featuring performances by the "TGS Special Orchestra", specially organized for this event at the prestigious Suntory Hall. In addition to the main stages, there will also be a big band, jazz quartet and other stages so users can enjoy gaming music through different kind of performances as well as full orchestra. *All stages will be delivered online which require fees.

Please check out the TOKYO GAME MUSIC FES special website (<https://tgmf.ecchat.live/2021/lp>), which opens today. The website introduces program information, the performers for each day, ticket purchase benefits and more.
